

105th MAINTENANCE OPERATIONS FLIGHT

MISSION

The Maintenance Operations Flight is organized as a support unit to the Maintenance Group. The functional areas of Plans Scheduling & Documentation, Engine Management, Maintenance Operations Center, and Maintenance Data Systems Analysis are charged with managing the health of the aircraft fleet. Maintenance Training ensures that all personnel are qualified to perform their duties. Program and Resources manages the manning, facilities, support agreements, and deployment functions for the Maintenance Group. The Flight, itself, is managed by a Commander, First Sergeant, and Superintendent.
