On a disc per bend Gules and Azure, a lightning bolt descending to base throughout Or, between a wolf's head in chief erased Proper, howling to dexter at the North Star Argent and in base, the constellation of the Big Dipper of the last, all within a narrow border Black. Attached above the disc, a Silver Gray scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed "DEFENSOR

BOREAS” in Black letters. Attached below the disc, a Silver Gray scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed “133RD SECURITY FORCES SQUADRON” in Black letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The wolf’s head on the red background symbolizes military might and vigilance. The Big Dipper and North Star on the blue background depict celestial navigation indicative of the ability to guide and lead. The lightning bolt represents the rapid response capability of the unit.
