OPERATIONS

140th Aircraft Maintenance Squadron provides intermediate and flight line maintenance for more than 20. The squadron is comprised of more than 230 personnel, each an expert in maintaining and loading the advanced combat systems of the world's most lethal fighter. The 140 AMXS personnel are tasked with two primary objectives. First is to ensure combat mission-ready aircraft are maintained to support the combat readiness of the 120th Fighter Squadron "REDEYES". Second is to provide a fleet of Mission Ready Alert Aircraft in support of 24/7 homeland defense operations.
