Attached below the disc, a White scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed "142D COMM FLT" in Black letters.

EMBLEM SIGNIFICANCE

Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The divided disc represents twenty-four hour day and night operational capability. The lightning bolts stand for the lines of communications the unit provides to the global battlefield, represented by the globe. The sword represents the positive resolve to defend the mission from attack or to attack an enemy. The gauntlet is indicative of the determination to achieve the unit's goals.
