OPERATIONS

Provides total support during an Airman's career from enlistment through retirement. This support includes training, developing, feeding, lodging, promoting, deploying, retiring, and providing burial entitlements for members and their families. The Force Development Flight, Manpower and Personnel Flight, and Services Sustainment Flight in conjunction with wing functions of Airman and Family Services and Recruitment and Retention are responsible for implementing Air Force total force service initiatives. Enhances overall combat readiness and productivity with the promotion of services support, esprit de corps and quality of life to the Maryland Air National Guard community and deployed locations.

Officers: 4 Enlisted: 61

The wing continued to undergo organizational changes in 2009. The functions of the 175th Mission Support Flight and the 175th Services Flight were consolidated into a single new unit, the 175th Force Support Squadron, in April.
