

176 FORCE SUPPORT SQUADRON

MISSION

175 Force Support Squadron mission is to provide world-class support and quality of life to our customers through outstanding community services, personnel, education, training, manpower, career assistance, and airman and family support services... and to produce the best trained and motivated warriors who are ready to deploy and defend our nation on a moment's notice.

The Force Support Flight contains three sections: Force Development; Manpower and Personnel; and Sustainment Services.

Force Development conducts education and training (E&T) tasks for maintenance, operations, and support training; education services; curriculum development; and instructor activities. Its members develop, deliver and evaluate E&T programs and oversee E&T activities.

Manpower and Personnel supervises and performs personnel activities and functions, including personnel action requests; source documents; unit, field, and master personnel records; and Commander's Support Staff (CSS) tasks.

Finally, Sustainment Services manages and directs services programs, operations, and retail operations. Its members supervise and works in food-service activities; lodging activities; recreation, fitness and sports programs; linen exchange and laundry operations; mortuary affairs programs; honor guard teams; and services readiness programs.
