EMBLEM

On a disc Celeste, an olive branch Proper and a lightning bolt Or in saltire superimposed with a hand bendwise Argent, grasping a torch of the last and enflamed of the second, entoured by a diamond shape Azure, voided of the field bearing twenty-five mullets of the third, all within a narrow border Blue. Attached above the disc, a Yellow scroll edged with a narrow Blue border and inscribed "PEACE OR WAR WE ARE COMMITTED" in Blue letters. Attached below the disc, a Yellow scroll edged with a narrow Blue border and inscribed "189TH SERVICES FLIGHT" in Blue letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The hand pertains to sincerity and justice. The flaming torch represents zealotry, and the olive branch indicates peace and concordance. Together, all are universal symbols for the Services Air Force Specialty Code, indicative of peace, combat strength and readiness, excellence, vigilance, spirit and camaraderie. The stars allude to the accomplishment of the unit's mission and to providing superior service to its customers.
