Sable, issuing from base a demi-globe Azure gridlined Argent, in saltire two swords Proper, pommel and guard Or, grip Gules, overall and issuing from the point at which the swords intersect, a starburst of seven points terminating in a lightning flash per pale of the last, all within a diminished bordure Yellow. Attached below the shield, a White scroll edged with a narrow Yellow border and inscribed "FIRST TO THE FIGHT" in Blue letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The black field represents the unknown and unpredictable challenges faced in fulfilling the mission. The demi-globe symbolizes the global reach of the mission. The two swords embody the warrior ethos of the unit and an unwavering readiness for a call to arms. The sword blades emphasize the strength and purity of the unit's convictions in serving its country. The sword handle recalls the heart and dedication of the men and women of the Group. The starburst signifies strength of force. The lightning flash simulates the ability to employ force and capabilities with quick reaction time, as well as pinpoint precision.
