EMBLEM

On a disc as a globe, axis bendwise Azure, gridlined Sable, an isosceles triangle throughout of the like thereon a plate charged with a skeleton key fesswise wards to dexter base Proper, surmounted by a lightning bolt bendwise sinister Or, all within a narrow border Black. Attached above the disc, a Red scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed "PROSPERO LAURUS" in Black letters. Attached below the disc, a Red scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed "607TH AIR SUPPORT SQUADRON" in Black letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The black triangle cast across a blue globe gridlines in black represents the high readiness in the critical aspects of storing, maintaining and activating war reserve material over great distances at a moment's notice. A white circle at the center of the triangle represents a calm center. The silver key held fast to the circle by a bolt of golden lightning represents the traditional Quartermaster Corps strengths of security, safekeeping and control. (Approved, 11 Sep 2003)
