falcon symbolizes the strength, flexibility and ferocity of aerospace power. The star surmounted with the Taeguk symbol represents balance.

MOTTO

OPERATIONS

1/31/2008 Osan Air Base Airmen began a new chapter for the primary combat air force provider to South Korea as the Pacific Air Forces commander uncased the 7th Air Force, Air Forces Korea flag Jan. 30 here. After assuming command, General Wood redesignated one group, inactivated two and activated another in an effort to consolidate and streamlined the organization to include an Air and Space Operations Center, an Air Force Forces staff, and a new support group. The changes include: Redesignation of the 607th Air Operations Group to the 607th Air and Space Operations Center. Inactivation of the 607th Combat Operations Squadron and the 607th Combat Plans Squadron. Stood up the 607th Support Group.
