EMBLEM

On a disc Celeste, issuant from sinister chief two contrails arcing base wise to dexter fesswise Argent, each terminating in a stylized flight symbol Sable, surmounting the contrail and issuant from a demi-globe in base Azure, a mullet Or, all within a narrow border Black. Attached above the disc, a White scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed "MUNDO SERVIENTES" in Black letters. Attached below the disc, a White scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed "675TH ARMAMENT SYSTEMS SQ" in Black letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The star symbolizes the strength and courage of joint leadership. The flight symbols represent the unit's commitment to sustain and support the armament systems fielded throughout the world in unity with allied forces. The Latin motto, "MUNDO SERVIENTES," in English means "SERVES THE WORLD" and stresses the unit's goal to effectively manage international programs for coalition partners and foster an environment for future foreign military sales.
