

732 AIR EXPEDITIONARY GROUP

MISSION

732nd Air Expeditionary Group provides oversight and advocacy for roughly 1,800 Air Force personnel spread across five squadrons who are tactically assigned to U.S. Army and Marine units throughout Iraq. These Airmen include security forces, civil engineers, lawyers, interrogators, military working dog teams, intelligence specialists, and airfield managers. These Airmen are under tactical, or day to day, control of Army and Marine units, while administratively and operationally controlled by the 732nd AEG.

EMBLEM

Azure, a saltire and base Or, a nebuly Argent in chief, all within a diminished bordure Or.

Attached below the shield, a White scroll edged with a narrow Yellow border and inscribed “732D AIR EXPEDITIONARY GROUP” in Blue letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The emblem signifies ground combat Airmen protected by a shield of crossed runways representing the traditional airbase foundation from which ground combat airpower emanates and is projected. Combined with the nebula of white clouds that signify the heraldic traditional medium of air, space and cyberspace power projection, the emblem represents the totality of battle space from which the Group provides dominant combat airpower.
