EMBLEM

811 Operations Group emblem

811 Operations Group emblem: Per bend sinister Azure and Silver Gray, above in base a terrestrial demi-globe Argent, land masses of the first, an eagle stooping to dexter Proper, environed by five mullets forming a pentagon, one, two and two, Or, all within a diminished bordure of the last. Attached below the shield, a White scroll edged with a narrow Yellow border and inscribed "811TH OPERATIONS GROUP" in Blue letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The eagle with wings stooping embodies the Group's mission as resolute and skilled airborne guardians. The stars signify strong ties to military and government leadership, and the globe, the unit's internal scope. The divided background signifies the mission of the Group being executed at any time, rain or shine, day or night.
