EMBLEM

yellow lightning bolt with point at left center, and in his left claw at bottom center a white open end wrench and a white screwdriver with yellow handle both detailed black. Attached above the disc a blank yellow scroll and below, a yellow scroll with the motto FAST-ACCURATE in blue letters. SIGNIFICANCE: The crayfish represents the determination of the men and women of the squadron to overcome all adversities; it also represents Southern Louisiana. The lightning bolt represents the electronics expertise of squadron personnel. The wrench and screwdriver represent the mechanics' abilities to keep assigned aircraft combat-ready. (Approved, 26 Aug 1983)
