

1 SPECIAL OPERATIONS GROUP

MISSION

The 1 Special Operations Group is one of four groups assigned to the 1 Special Operations Wing. The group plans, prepares, and executes special operations, foreign internal defense, and security assistance worldwide in support of theater commanders. The 1 SOG also manages Air Force Special Operations Command's formal school for AC-130H/Us and MC-130E/H qualification and is the lead organization for distributive mission operations.

In order to accomplish its special operations mission, the group employs more than 70 fixed- and rotary-wing aircraft to provide day or night, all-weather access to hostile and/or denied airspace. More than 1,400 people are assigned to the group. There are 10 squadrons within the group with one at a geographically separated location:

- 1 Special Operations Support Squadron
- 4 Special Operations Squadron, AC-130U
- 6 Special Operations Squadron, MI-8, C-130E, AN-26, C-47
- 8 Special Operations Squadron, CV-22
- 9 Special Operations Squadron, MC-130P
- 15 Special Operations Squadron, MC-130H
- 16 Special Operations Squadron, AC-130H
- 19 Special Operations Squadron, Formal Training
- 20 Special Operations Squadron, MH-53J/M/P
- 319 Special Operations Squadron, U-28A

EMBLEM

The emblem of the 1 Special Operations Group is that of the 1 Special Operations Wing with the group designation in the scroll. It is symbolic of the organization's history and mission. The blue background represents the sky and the United States Air Force. The 13 red and white stripes stand for the nation's original 13 colonies, the first American force to engage in war to defend freedom. The silver dagger is winged to indicate the 1 Special Operations Wing brings force through the air. A golden lamp of knowledge reflects the wing's civic action role and indicates that members of the 1 Special Operations Wing serve as teachers, as well as warriors, in helping our allies determine their own way of life and form of government.
