EMBLEM

The emblem of the 1st Special Operations Mission Support Group is that of the 1st Special Operations Wing with the group designation in the scroll. It is symbolic of the organization's history and mission. The blue background represents the sky and the United States Air Force. The 13 red and white stripes stand for the nation's original 13 colonies, the first American force to engage in war to defend freedom. The silver dagger is winged to indicate the 1st Special Operations Wing brings force through the air. A golden lamp of knowledge reflects the wing's civic action role and indicates that members of the 1st Special Operations Wing serve as teachers, as well as warriors, in helping our allies determine their own way of life and form of government.

OPERATIONS

The Airmen of the 1st Special Operations Mission Support Group provide garrison and deployed support for the 1st Special Operations Wing, Air Force Special Operations Command headquarters and 34 partner units. It deploys manpower, equipment, and supplies to support training, exercises, and contingency operations.

The 1st Special Operations Mission Support Group is the most diverse group in the wing, as it's comprised of seven squadrons focusing on all areas of support. The squadrons that make up the 1st SOMSG are the 1st Special Operations Civil Engineer Squadron, 1st Special Operations Communications Squadron, 1st Special Operations Contracting Squadron, 1st Special Operations Logistics Readiness Squadron, 1st Special Operations Force Support Squadron, and the 1st Special Operations Security Forces Squadron. Because of the diversity of the squadrons, the group is able to provide the wing with all types of support, ranging from force protection and military construction projects, to the lodging, transportation and messing of the base's populous and visitors.
