OPERATIONS

In October 1949 ATC organized a training aids wing at Chanute. By 1 January 1950, the wing possessed 37 detachments: 15 bomber, 7 cargo, and 15 fighter.

The 3345th Technical Training Wing operated the base and the schools. The base also hosted the 3499th Training Aids Wing. By 1953, the 3499th was designated as a Mobile Training Wing.

On 4 November 1952, ATC redesignated the 3499th Mobile Training Group as a wing. Previously, the mobile training group had been a part of the 3499th Training Aids Wing, until the command discontinued the wing in early 1952.
