OPERATIONS

The 6989th RSM assumed the 6921st group's intercept mission, with group retaining its second echelon reporting mission. The 6989th RSM personnel "did not even change tricks or move to new barracks." Activation of the 6989th RSM occurred while the group's operations compound was undergoing an upgrade.

Construction of the circular AN/FLR-9 "elephant cage" antenna system and new operations building at Misawa Air Base began in July 1963, the same month that the 6989th RSM became the 6989th Security Squadron.
