OPERATIONS

On 10 June 1966 the 7379th Tactical Group was activated at Laon AB and assigned the task of clearing out and closing Laon after the departure of the 66th Wing. Tons of material were shipped as directed by Project FRELOC schedules. Between 10 and 16 March 1967 all remaining personnel were transferred to West Germany. On 17 March 1967, the base was turned over to France and the flags lowered; Laon Air Base was closed after sixteen years of continuous use. The 7379th Tactical Group was inactivated in place at Laon Air Base at midnight 31 March 1967.
