EMBLEM

On a disc Azure, four bends rebated Red, Blue, Yellow and Green each charged with a mullet in pale Argent, the middle two bends impaling the breast of an eagle, wings disclosed bendwise of the second shaded Grebe, the outer two bends each terminating over the wings in a mullet of two points, all within a diminished border White. Attached above the disc, a Blue scroll edged with a narrow White border and inscribed "93D OSS" in White letters. Attached below the disc, a Blue scroll edged with a narrow White border and inscribed "VISION TO VICTORY" in White letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The eagle represents the strength and vision of the Squadron and its mission. The stars symbolize the joint combatant services of the unit's missions. The four stripes allude to the four squadrons the unit supports during its mission.
