On October 21, 1946, Headquarters and Headquarters Detachment, Mississippi National Guard came into being with an inspection of the State Staff and State Detachment for Federal recognition. This State Staff contained both Army and Air personnel. On October 11, 1949, a National Guard Bureau letter authorized the formation of an Air Section within Headquarters and Headquarters Detachment. The present name Headquarters, Mississippi Air National Guard, was extended by the National Guard Bureau in a letter and certificate of Federal recognition dated December 17, 1951. Federal recognition was effective January 1, 1952.
