EMBLEM

On a disc Azure, a stylized hawk displayed Gules, detailed Sable, eyed, beaked and armed Or, grasping saltirewise in its claws a key, ward up to dexter and a lightning bolt of the last and a sword fesswise, point to dexter Argent (Silver Gray), all within a narrow border Yellow. Attached above the disc, a Yellow scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed

“SCIENTIA EST POTENTIA” in Black letters. Attached below the disc, a Yellow scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed “392D INTELLIGENCE SQUADRON” in Black letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The lightning bolt and key depict the Squadron’s use and exploitation of the electromagnetic spectrum, key to intelligence operations and Air Force information dominance. The sword represents the unit’s commitment to the defense of the United States. The hawk associates the unit with air power. As a bird of prey, the hawk is ever vigilant, on the hunt and maintains higher ground. The hawk’s wings highlight the Squadron’s ties to the air and space community with mutual reliance and support to air and space operations. (Approved, 6 Jun 2013)
